The Bank at its discretion may waive any of the privileges, immunities and exemptions conferred under this Chapter in any case or instance, in such manner and upon such conditions as it may determine to be appropriate in the best interests of the Bank.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In pursuance of an International Agreement to which India will be a signatory, a new financial institution called the Asian Development Bank is being established for accelerating the economic development of Asia and the Far East. Chapter VIII of the Articles of Agreement provides for the granting to the Bank and its officers and employees certain status, immunities, exemptions and privileges in the territory of each member country. Article 57 of the Agreement stipulates that each member country, in accordance with its juridical system, shall promptly take such action as is necessary to make effective in its own territory, the provisions set forth in Chapter VIII of the Agreement. By this Bill, it is proposed to enact the necessary legislation to give effect to the provisions of the said Chapter VIII of the Articles of Agreement. Provision has also been made in the Bill empowering the Central Government to make payments to the Bank towards subscriptions, fees and other charges and for matters connected therewith.

NEW DELHI;
The 16th April, 1966.

SACHINDRA CHAUDHURI.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATIONS UNDER ARTICLES 117
AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of Letter No. 2 (39) /66-FBI, dated the 16th April, 1966 from Shri Sachindra Chaudhuri, Minister of Finance to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.].

The President having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill to implement the international agreement for the establishment and operation of the Asian Development Bank in so far as it relates to the status, immunities, exemptions and privileges of the Asian Development Bank, and for matters connected therewith, recommends the introduction of the Bill in the Lok Sabha as required under articles 117(1), 117(3) and 274(1) of the Constitution of India,

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

India has been allotted a share of $93 million (Rs. 44·29 crores) in the total capital stock of $1,000 million of the Asian Development Bank and is the second largest Asian Contributor to the capital of the Bank.

2. Under Article 5(1) of the Articles of Agreement of the Bank, only half of each member's capital subscription will be initially payable and the other half shall be subject to calls only as and when required by the Bank to meet its obligations on borrowings of funds for making or participating in direct loans or for guaranteeing loans for economic development. The payment of the paid-in-capital is to be made, under Article 6 of the Agreement, in five equal annual instalments, the first of such instalments being payable within 30 days after the entry into force of the Articles of Agreement or on or before the date of deposit of its instrument of ratification by the member, whichever is later.

3. The Agreement is likely to be entered into force shortly, and on this basis, India's payments towards the capital subscription of the Bank are expected to be phased as shown below:—

Amount (U.S. $ million)			Likely dates of payment
in Foreign Exchange	in Indian Rupees	Total
4·65	4·65	9·3	June-July, 1966
4·65	4·65	9·3	July, 1967
4·65	4·65	9·3	July, 1968
4·65	4·65	9·3	July, 1969
4·65	4·65	9·3	July, 1970
23·25	23·25	46·5

The remaining amount of $46·5 million will be payable as and when called-up by the Bank for meeting its obligations referred to above.

4. Article 5 of the Agreement also provides that the capital stock of the Bank shall be reviewed at intervals of not less than five years. The earliest of such a review will therefore take place in 1971. If and when such a review leads to an increase in the Bank's capital stock, each member shall be given an opportunity to subscribe to a proportion of the increase in the Bank's capital stock. Any payments that may have to be made by India on account of such an increase, cannot be foreseen at this stage and will in any case be at her own option.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 5(2) of the Bill confers power on the Central Government to amend the Schedule in conformity with any amendments, duly made and adopted, of the provisions of the Agreement set out therein

2. Clause 6 of the Bill confers power upon the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act. The immunities, exemptions and privileges of the Asian Development Bank and its officials and employees having been specified in the Schedule to the Bill, occasions for making rules, if any, will be few and far between. The Asian Bank has not yet started its functions. It is not possible, therefore, to envisage at this stage the matters which may have to be provided for by rules. But as the immunities, exemptions and privileges have been specified in the Bill, it is clear that rules, if any, will be confined to matters of procedure and other matters of minor detail relating to the enjoyment of those immunities, exemptions and privileges and their waiver. For instance, if the Bank decides to waive any of the immunities, exemptions or privileges, a rule may be necessary prescribing the manner in which and the officer of the Government to whom such waiver should be communicated.

3. The delegation of legislative power is thus of a normal character.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary.
